Chouteau Town Board Members Seek New Terms

All incumbent officers of the Chouteau town board have filed nominating petitions as candidates for re-election in the April town balloting, it was reported today. Several other sets of petitions are reported in circulation in the township. The incumbent ticket has been filed as the Peoples-Labor Party and is headed by incumbent Supervisor Walter C. Sparks, 613 English place, who is seeking election to a four-year term. Sparks has been serving by appointment.

Other candidates include George Warncke, 909 East Chouteau, who is seeking re-election to a four-year term; Otis R. Reeves, South Roxana, tax assessor; Charles E. Lesow, Rural Route Two, tax collector; and Cletus Bedwell, South Roxana, Marion A. Sparks of 912 East Chain of Rocks road and James E. Greer of 5504 Maryville road as town auditors.

Warncke announced that the town board also has authorized a call for Democratic and Republican township caucuses to be held Feb. 4. The caucuses are required by statute to permit electors to name candidates for town offices if they wish to do so. The caucuses are held following the closing of the filing period (Jan. 27 this year) for independent candidates.

The Republican caucus will convene in the town clerk's office at 909 East Chain of Rocks road at 1 p.m. and the Democratic caucus will be held in the township relief office, Eberhart Garage building on Old Alton road at Mitchell, at 3 p.m.

Amsted Sales Up, Net Income Is Down

Amsted Industries had sales of $58,062,000 in the three months ended Dec. 31, up from $53,550,000 the previous year, it was reported this week by Joseph B. Lanterman, chairman of the board who was elected to that post at a board meeting Monday.

Net income amounted to $1,626,000, equal to 2.8 cents a share, compared to $1,018,000, or 1.6 cents a share a year ago. Lanterman said the decrease in earnings was attributable to several factors: A reduction in the company's selling prices of side frames and bolsters late in 1968; fiscal year necessary to remain competitive, higher labor costs per hour from negotiated increases and the 10% federal income tax surcharge.

Lanterman told stockholders that earnings in the March 31, 1969, quarter are expected to be above the Dec. 31 quarter. Income in the last half of this fiscal year should exceed that of the same period in fiscal 1968, he added.

At the meeting a dividend of 60 cents per share was declared payable March 14 to stockholders of record as of the close of business on Feb. 20.

Lanterman, 54, has been president and chief executive of the broadly diversified firm since 1959 and continues as chief executive officer. Geoff Smith, 52, executive vice-president since January, 1966, was elected Amsted president and will be chief operating officer.

The Madison county board of supervisors steering committee unanimously endorsed efforts of the St. Clair-Madison Counties Police Chiefs Association to apply for funds for crime control studies under the federal Omnibus Act during a meeting Monday afternoon.

The regulation urges state officials to approve the application and offers cooperation in the proposed program. The federal government has provided $833,000 to the state for the purpose, and at least 40% is to go to local law enforcement agencies.

The association is seeking $106,479 under the act and is planning a computerized bi-county central identification, records and a training facility for police officers.

Mothers' March Sunday to Aid Birth Defects Research

The traditional "mothers' march" Sunday afternoon and a dance the same day will highlight fund-raising activities in this area for the 1969 March of Dimes. Additional solicitation is planned Monday evening in Madison.

Once a key element in the successful fight to curb polio, the National Foundation in recent years has devoted most of its efforts to reduce birth defects in numbers and severity. At present, for every 15 normal babies, one is born defective—having a problem when born inviting disfigurement or a condition that can lead to physical or mental handicap, shortened life or is fatal.

With house-to-house solicitation to be conducted in Quad-City residential areas Sunday afternoon, drive leaders also have arranged a dance which will continue from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday at the Benevolent Society, 2301 Washington avenue. Theme will be "Go Mod; Go March of Dimes."

Four Bands Volunteer
The $1 contributions will go to the drive, and music will be provided without charge by bands of this area—Black Zou, Mosher Shotgun Minus Two, J. Christopher Blues band and Nirvana. There will be no age limits.

March of Dimes leaders for 1969 include:
Granite City — Mrs. Gerald Parnley, 3221 Willow avenue, chairman; Mrs. F. B. Dioneola, 2857 Cleveland blvd., co-chairman; Mrs. Nelson Hagnauer, 2708 Saratoga avenue, advisor; Dan Churovic, canisters; and Mrs. Leroy Mangiaracino, dance chairman. Representatives of Beneath Society are helping distribute donation canisters to stores and public buildings.

Madison — Mrs. Charles Voelki, 1610 Seventh street, chairman; and Mrs. Elmer Voegel, 1899 Fourth street, and Mrs. Hilda James, 109 Weaver street, Venice, co-chairmen.

Millon Morris, 1300 McKinley avenue, chairman.

Madison county drive director is D. Dean Bridwell of Edwarsville.

A joint statement by the local drive leaders notes that the "second decade of fighting birth defects is starting in a climate considerably improved over 1959."

Science vs. Superstition
"The murky clouds of ignorance and superstition about children damaged before birth have been made to dissipate. Ancient superstitions and guilt about birth defects are yielding to scientific understanding."

"Through the mists of age-old hopelessness, there are bright rays of assurance that the problem can be overcome. These changes have been made to happen by a growing army of dedicated physicians, research scientists, volunteers and the contributing public — people who believe that even the most mystifying of mankind's life can be solved by the same kind of concerted effort that conquered polio."

Nameoki Twp. Ok's Bid Call on Sewer Line

The Nameoki town board, in a brief meeting Tuesday night, authorized Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks to call bids for installation of a 24-inch stormwater sewer line from Breckenridge avenue to Long Lake, on Gordon avenue.

No estimate on the work was given. Hanks said he would announce a date for a bid call soon. The board also authorized Hanks to install an outdoor night light on the west side of the township garage building.

The board approved a call for Democratic and Republican caucuses to be held Feb. 4, in accordance with state law. The caucuses are held to give electors an opportunity to select candidates for town offices in the April elections. The Democratic caucus will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the State Park and Convention Center. The Republican caucus will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall on Highway 162.

Gambling Raid Report Corrected

A raid on a card game by Madison police at 4:40 a.m. Jan. 12 occurred in rooms at 32a Madison avenue and not in rooms at 327a Madison avenue as originally reported, Police Chief Emmett Pizia reported yesterday.

Chief Pizia said original police reports on the raid which said the arrest of five men involved in a card game occurred in rooms above the wrong address, have been corrected.

The five men were arrested in the raid and charged with gambling after police broke open a door and found the men at a table playing cards. Police confiscated several decks of cards and a small amount of currency.

A. O. Smith Profits Increase 21% in 1968

A. O. Smith Corp. profits increased for the fourth consecutive year, rising 21% to $4.68 a share in 1968 from $3.87 a year earlier. L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, announced this week.

Net income in 1968 was $11,642,613 on record sales of $72,797,673. In 1967 earnings were $9,627,397 and sales were $329,976,263. The federal income surtax reduced 1968 earnings by $1,063,000, or 44 cents a share.

The automotive industry, to which A. O. Smith is a major supplier of passenger car and truck frames, enjoyed one of its best years in 1968 and includes the Granite City plant, the executive said. A. O. Smith participated in this industry rise and maintained its lead over its nearest direct competitors in the passenger car and truck frame business.

Venice Receives Plaque Won By Former Student

A shield inscribed with the name of Russell Turner, a former Venice high school student, was displayed Monday evening at a meeting of the Venice board of education.

Recently presented to the school district, the plaque represented second place honors conferred upon Turner in the 1968 Leadership Recognition Awards program sponsored by the Association of U. S. Army.

Candidates are selected from young men in secondary schools who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in academics, leadership and citizenship. Forty-four area high schools submitted nominees, including Granite City high school, with first place won by Charles B. Thoele Jr. of Northwest high school, St. Louis.

Currently attending the University of Alabama on an academic scholarship, Turner received a $200 scholarship award in addition to the plaque. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, 109 Abbott street, Venice.

A letter congratulating the Venice school district for successful participation in the AUSA Leadership Awards program accompanied the plaque from U. S. Army Col. James F. Kurma, professor of military science at Washington University and chairman of the association project.

Awards program officials include Robert McBride, Granite City Steel Co. vice-president, who serves as AUSA vice-president; Col. Charles E. After School Enrichment Program in Venice Grade

An after-school enrichment program, geared to help upgrade fifth through eighth grade pupils who attend on a voluntary basis, has been started at the Venice school by two faculty members, the Venice school board was informed Monday evening.

Conducting the program are Willie Walker, a fourth grade teacher, and Gary Craig, a high school English instructor, who have volunteered their time to the program after school hours on Mondays and Wednesdays. The special sessions, held in the high school language center, presently have 17 pupils participating. They are being helped in such areas as remedial reading and arithmetic.

Approximately 80 Venice school children are taking part in a basketball program each Saturday morning in the school gym, under sponsorship of the YMCA, board members were told.

The board approved payment of tuition fees at an Illinois junior college for Edward Charles Johnstone, 1902 Oriole street, a service veteran.

Psychologist Resigns
In other action, the resignation of Richard A. Korman, a school psychologist with Special Education Region 1, of which the Venice district is part, was announced.

Korman, who cited the ill health of his wife as the reason for resigning, was praised by Board Member Jack Tolliver, who serves as Venice school board representative on the Region 1 advisory board.

Tolliver said he regretted that the resignation was necessary, adding that Korman "was an asset to the program, doing a very fine job."

Mrs. Myrtle Parker, head cook at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, notified the board she plans to retire at the end of this school year. She has been employed by the Venice school district about 15 years.

$10,000 Transfer for Center
The sum of $10,000 was transferred to the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center account to meet the January payroll. In recommending the transfer, Supt. John O. Pier explained that a $22,000 payment for bills reimbursable from state funds is expected within the next two weeks.

Pier said a check for $23,836 was received from the state this week as repayment of amount expended from regular district funds to cover November bills.

Other amounts transferred by resolution included $867 from the education fund and $738 from the building fund, both going to the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

92.55% December Attendance
According to a report for 17 school days in December, average attendance throughout the Venice district was 92.55%, a decline from the November attendance mark of 93.39%. Kindergarten attendance showed the lowest attendance rate with 89.55%. Venice elementary attendance was 92.55%, and the high school 92.92%.

Bound Over to Jury
Leslie Anderson, 25, of 4506 Kirkpatrick Homes, pleaded not guilty to a charge of burglary but waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the Madison county grand jury Monday afternoon by Magistrate William Johnson. He was charged Saturday with stealing television sets from the Vandallia warehouse where he was employed.

Venue Change in Discrimination Suit is Sought

Change of venue will be sought in a U. S. Department of Justice suit filed against Local 520 of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Granite City, will be sought by the union's attorney, Harold Gruenberg of St. Louis, it was noted yesterday. Gruenberg said he also will file motions for dismissal of the proceedings against the operating engineers union.

The operating engineers and two other area unions, Local 90 of the Operative Plasterers and Cement Masons and Local 300 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, were named in proceedings alleging job discrimination against Negroes.

The federal government has frozen all funds for highway construction in Madison and St. Clair counties because of alleged job discrimination and excessive labor costs. The suits were filed in U. S. district court at East St. Louis.

Gruenberg said he will seek a change of venue for the Granite City union to the U. S. district court in Springfield in whose jurisdiction Granite City lies. Gruenberg said he believes the suits were politically motivated because they were filed on the last work day of the outgoing administration.

Robert A. Kronst, district engineer of the Illinois Highway Department, said the freeze on federal construction funds is expected to tie up about $30 millions in highway work this year unless it is lifted. The district lost about $4 millions in work last year.

Annual Venice Benefit Ball Set for Saturday

The 31st Annual Crippled Children's Ball, sponsored by the Venice Crippled Children's Organization, will take place Saturday evening at the Venice Madison American Legion Home, 600 Broadway.

Music for dancing will be furnished by the Buddy Moreno orchestra. Tickets may be purchased in advance, or at the door, at $1 each. A group of teenage residents will decorate the ball prior to the start of festivities, it was learned today.

Earlier Saturday, members of the Venice volunteer fire department and American Legion Post 307 will man a road block on Broadway at Klein street, seeking additional donations from motorists for the organization's charitable endeavors.

Special guests at the ball will include Dean Bridwell, Madison county March of Dimes chairman, and Mrs. Bridwell, all of Edwardsville. Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore and Claude Echols will represent the Shrine organization.

IPC Issues Warning On Bogus Gas Man

"The short, fat man in the orange baseball cap who wants to check high gas usage at your house is an impostor who may make off with whatever valuables he can find," C. F. Mathias, area manager for Illinois Power Co., warned today.

"In Jacksonville, a man about five feet, nine inches tall weighing 200 pounds called at the home of an elderly woman, identified himself as an employee of the gas company checking furnaces and water heaters for high gas usage," Mathias said.

"The man and the household went to the basement presumably to check the furnace and the water heater. Then the man asked the woman to stay in the basement to listen for the 'click' when he adjusted the thermostat on the main floor. While the woman waited for the 'click' when he adjusted the thermostat upstairs and disappeared with a woman passenger in a four-door car."

"In Jacksonville, the man got only 80 cents for his efforts, but the take was better in Hannibal where he posed as a water department worker entering the same scheme. If you are in doubt about the person who wants to check your gas or electric facilities, check with the Illinois Power Co. office," Mathias advised.

One of the most frequently mentioned areas of weakness, Pier pointed out, was absence or lack of use of instructional materials and visual aids. A budget for various departments was also suggested, along with a need for additional supplies and materials in certain classes.

Plan to Convert TB Sanatorium Presents Problem

A specially named county committee will meet Tuesday in the Madison County Tuberculosis Sanatorium with the sanatorium board of trustees in an attempt to work out a financial problem in the county's plan to convert the sanatorium into a nursing home. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m.

The special committee was appointed by County Board Chairman Harold Landolt earlier this week during a meeting of the County Board Steering Committee in which a question developed over use of surplus sanatorium funds for conversion of the sanatorium property into a nursing home. County officials estimate it will cost $300,000 to $350,000 to remodel the building and meet state requirements for nursing homes.

Assistant State's Atty. Marshall Smith said the committee believed the problem could be solved if the sanatorium board would cooperate with the county. Smith said the sanatorium now has about $438,000 on hand, an additional $122,837 in 1963, only $336,949 in 1964 (due to automotive, hardware and restaurant volume decline), $520,698 in 1965, $1,014,322 in 1966 and $1,497,296 in 1967.

The county will seek to determine if funds for remodeling the building can be used out of these available monies. Auditor John Kraynak said there is no statutory provision for transferring the sanatorium money directly to the county's general fund.

The special committee named by Landolt includes Smith Kraynak and the chairman of the county board's nursing, steeling and sanatorium committees.

George Schneider, president of the sanatorium board, was charged with the steering committee meet and protested use of sanatorium funds for anything except tuberculosis.

for the past week and I was afraid something was wrong. He writes home at least once a week," Mrs. Counts said, adding, "I looked up and saw the green uniforms at the back of the cafeteria and right away I knew something had happened to him."

After leaving here in November, the Marine was to spend three weeks at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and four months on Iwo Jima before returning to active duty in Vietnam. Apparently his travel orders were changed and he was shipped directly to Vietnam, his mother said. While home on leave, the serviceman still was experiencing difficulty with the law, she said he had received last January, it was learned.

MORE ABOUT Dramatic Surge

Pontoon Beach began appearing in annual Revenue Department reports in 1964, when sales were listed as $77,771. Earlier, the volume was such that the returns were added to the statewide and county totals but given specific mention.

In 1965, the Pontoon Beach purchasing level had reached $89,696, and it further increased to $270,107 in 1966 and $479,242 in 1967 before soaring to a probable total of more than $1 million in 1968.

Major GC Increase

During the same 1968-1967 decade in which Mitchell buying climbed from $468,983 to $1,497,296, there were increases from $40,549,756 to $72,880,467 in Granite City and $8,752,940 to $10,115,130 in Madison.

The Venice increase was from $2,414,601 to $2,451,572. Quad-City grand totals, with some fluctuation stemming from purchasing by manufacturers, have been as follows from 1958 through 1967: $32,166,281, $58,679,600, $79,278,194, $83,864,121, $69,850,473, $67,444,344, $80,277,567, $82,644,146, $101,368,988 and $87,422,707.

Big Gains Since 1966

A quarterly listing of Pontoon Beach purchasing mirrors the sharp increase that has occurred.

Beginning with January-March 1965, the Pontoon buying totals were $18,768, $24,640, $29,572, $26,315, $23,680, $32,335 (April-June 1965), $113,894 (July-September 1966), $108,226, $99,592, $85,016, $142,142 (July-September 1967), $151,489, $240,056 (January-March 1968), $287,229 (April-June 1968) and $280,096 (July-September 1968).

In the latest quarterly report issued, for the summer and early fall of 1968, the $280,096 purchasing at Pontoon Beach consisted of $226,458 food, $39,233 drinking and eating, $8976 automotive and service stations, $2646 lumber, building supplies and hardware and $1899 miscellaneous.

ing a joint Venice-Madison neighborhood some development program and voted to enter a joint contract with the Leo A. Daly Co. of St. Louis, consulting engineers, to make a necessary survey of dilapidated houses.

Cost of the survey, estimated at $25,000 to $35,000, will be prorated between the two cities on per capita basis. The Venice city council approved the program last week.

Under liberalized federal regulations, communities may build new homes in speculations, replacing deteriorated buildings with new homes, rather than enter major urban renewal or housing projects.

Federal grants may be used to purchase deteriorated houses as sites for new construction, and new houses may be built by private interests or, if funds are available, by the cities themselves.

Current residents will have the first choice in purchasing the new homes at low interest rates, the mayor said.

Nutrition Program

A letter from the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Illinois announced plans to conduct an expanded nutrition program in this area and to employ local assistants from the low income areas.

They will go into homes to teach proper food buying habits, nutrients and related matters. Fifth Ward Alderman John Haynes was appointed to a planning committee of the extension service as a consultant.

The council heard a proposal from the Illinois State Employment Service to cooperate in a work incentive program (WIN) in which unemployed male recipients in the old-age assistance children program will receive educational, pre-vocational, on-the-job training.

Enrollees would remain in the program for 13 weeks and would be paid $50 per month in addition to the state benefits they obtain.

Less Control Over Personnel

The program reduces a previous program sponsored by the Illinois Department of Public Aid in which several state and recipients were employed on the Madison street department.

Mayor Maers said that under the new program the city would have no control over personnel. It would have to accept enrollees from throughout the area if it entered the new program.

He said the city could be helped by the enrollees for jobs, if it worked and looking for jobs, if it entered the new program.

He said he will attempt to learn the number of ADCU recipients in the city of Madison. The proposal was tabled.

Littering Complaints

The mayor and some aldermen reported that numerous complaints are being received from residents about throw-away papers littering yards, driveways and streets in violation of the city's handbill ordinance.

The firm responsible is to be ordered to halt the nuisance by the chief of police.

The council ordered that a pathway from Second street and McCambridge avenue leading to Cloverleaf be barricaded as too dangerous to use.

A resolution requesting $5991 in motor fuel tax funds for additional work on Harris street at Caine drive was approved.

A resignation by Charles Bridgick as a member of the volunteer fire department was accepted. He recently was employed as a probationary patrolman and to begin a police training course on Feb. 17.

Parked Auto Struck

An auto struck by Rita Smith, 2130 Delmar avenue, struck the left rear of the parked auto of Marie Whittle, 2822a Edison avenue, at 6:50 p.m. Monday at 21st and Cleveland bld.

Park District to Ask Guarantees For Sewer ROW

Parkway areas along 24th and 27th streets in which Granite City is installing new storm water sewer lines are Granite City park district property on which the city failed to obtain easements, members of the Granite City park board were informed at a meeting last night.

Park board members expressed concern over possible damage to trees and shrubbery, particularly along the 27th street parkway. They instructed Park Board Atty. Randall Robertson to discuss the matter with city officials and engineers on the sewer project to obtain a guarantee that the parkway areas will be completely restored after sewer installation work is completed.

The board said it has no desire to withhold easements or assess any charge for the sewer right-of-way, but they will insist on replacement of the excavated areas.

The board also agreed last night in a conference session preceding the meeting to enter into a two-year contract with Ray Sweeney of New Athens to provide the carnival midway of rides and concessions for the annual 4th of July celebration at Wilson Park this year and in 1970.

Sweeney met with the board for an hour and a half in a discussion of contract terms. He told the board that he has added several new rides and that other rides have been rebuilt. Under the contract Sweeney will provide ten rides and ten concession stands on the midway.

The board also met with James King of the West Granite City Youth Commission in a discussion of tentative plans for construction of a building on the 11-acre site owned by the district in West Granite.

The board also met with James King of the West Granite City Youth Commission in a discussion of tentative plans for construction of a building on the 11-acre site owned by the district in West Granite.

The board also agreed last night in a conference session preceding the meeting to enter into a two-year contract with Ray Sweeney of New Athens to provide the carnival midway of rides and concessions for the annual 4th of July celebration at Wilson Park this year and in 1970.

Sweeney met with the board for an hour and a half in a discussion of contract terms. He told the board that he has added several new rides and that other rides have been rebuilt. Under the contract Sweeney will provide ten rides and ten concession stands on the midway.

The board also met with James King of the West Granite City Youth Commission in a discussion of tentative plans for construction of a building on the 11-acre site owned by the district in West Granite.

'Twosome' Bowling Tourney in Progress

A "community family two-some" bowling tournament, sponsored by the Illinois State Bowling Proprietors' Association, is in progress at Bowland lanes, 850 N. Main St., through Feb. 8.

Any adult (over 19 years) may enter who is a member of an ABC or IBC sanctioned league (1968-69) and may bowl with any girl or boy who has a current membership in an organized youth league with a 1968-69 YBA card.

Adult bowlers must be either relatives of their junior partners or residents of the same community. Bowling at the same establishment will constitute community affiliation. A "pins over average" scoring system will make all teams relatively equal.

The event is being conducted in three categories: Majors, age 16-18; Juniors, 12-15; and Preps, 12 years old and under. Division One is for a girl with a woman; Two, girl with man; Three, boy with woman; and Four, boy with man.

Trophies will be given in each division. The entry fee of $2.70 per team is for three games on a pair of lanes. Bowling any week day is to be completed by 6 p.m.; Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sunday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

One winner and one of every five teams competing in the preliminary tournament will bowl in the finals. The bowling establishment has not yet been designated but will be located in Madison or St. Clair counties. Finals are to be held March 15-16 and March 22-23.

Trojans Vs. Maroons In Semifinals Tonight

Tonight at 8:30 the Madison Trojans will battle the Belleville West Maroons in semifinals of the first annual Belleville East basketball tournament.

The Trojans downed the host club 67-66 in overtime while Belleville West coasted to an easier victory over Mater Dei of Breese 66-58 Tuesday.

After tonight, MHS will play for third place at 7 p.m. Saturday or for the title at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Trojans trailed 12-10 after the first quarter but then led 35-30 and 50-47 before the Lancers rallied to tie it 60-60. MHS won it with a 7-0 edge during overtime.

Coach Bob Page said, "We were slow getting started, falling behind four points before beginning to score. Tom Noel got hot in the second quarter and we were able to control the boards."

Marksmanship improves in the third quarter, the Trojans hit eight out of eight shots from more than 20 feet away. "Our defense suddenly started lagging in the fourth period and for the first time in the game they began getting inside for easier shots."

"Leading by two points with only seconds to go, we called time out and made plans to defend against a close shot by a Belleville East guard who had been hurting us the most."

"But he went to the outside and sank the tying basket as regulation time ended."

"In the overtime we made the first basket and they matched us each time until there were 30 seconds left."

"Dave Hutchison was fouled and had a one-and-one shot. He made the first but missed the second and they got the rebound. They lost the ball with 20 seconds left and after a time out we tried to wait for a good shot. But one of the players shot and missed with 11 seconds remaining. Belleville passed the length of the floor and had time to win. But four wild shots missed under the basket as time ran out."

Madison scorers were Dave Hutchison 20, Noel 18, John Harper 10, Alonzo Watts seven, Jim Scott six and Oscar Hagler, Ed Hilton and Howard Harper, two each.

Qualifying to Begin For Bowling Tourney

To qualify for the Southwestern Illinois All-Star Elimination bowling tournament, local bowlers will compete each Sunday morning from Jan. 26 through March 2. Squad time will be 11 a.m. at Bowland lanes.

Those participating will bowl three games with a two-thirds handicap from 210. One out of every 10 bowlers will earn entry into the elimination tournament, based on highest scores.

Bowlers may enter as often as they wish at $5.75 per three-game entry.

The elimination tournament is to be held March 9, 16 and 23 at four area bowling locations to be announced later.

Red Devils Red Hot in 83-59 Win

Rossor Gray led Venice to an 83-59 basketball win over Livingston here Tuesday night, the 5-1 guard hitting 18 of 29 field goal attempts and four of six free throws for 40 points.

Quarter scores of 23-9, 34-32 and 55-45 traced the three hot Red Devil quarters and the strong enemy comeback in the second period.

Venice outscored the taller visitors 38-31, led by Larry Mosby's 10. The hosts shot 48% from the field and were on target 11 of 16 times at the free throw line.

Doug Johnson helped out with 16 points, Mosby 13, Cedrick Gardner eight, Marvis Houtis four and Ronald Coleman, two. Except for "standing around and watching things happen" in the second period, Venice sparked on both defense and offense. Three straight steals and scores put the game out of reach for Livingston in the fourth period.

Jones Surprises Coach With Hardwood Prowess

Jeffrey Jones, 5-foot, 10-inch freshman from Granite City, has been a pleasant surprise to Hardin-Simmons University's coaches and students.

The high school all-star originally was recruited as a prospect of baseball coach Charlie Horton at the Abilene, Texas, campus.

He has proven abilities in basketball, having accumulated an average of 11.6 points per game during the first half of the season.

The average height of 6 feet, 5 inches of his teammates has not discouraged Jones from netting 127 points in 11 games, helping the frosh cagers earn a 102 record and victories over such freshman teams as Texas Tech and Howard Payne College.

Jones is the son of Mrs. Edna M. Jones, 2884 Washington avenue.

Skip Hastings, assistant coach at Hardin-Simmons, is a former assistant coach of Granite City high school. There are three Illinois athletes on Hardin-Simmons freshman teams.

'Make or Break' Road Games for GC

What may be the toughest weekend of the season awaits the GC's basketball Warriors, who will visit Collinsville at 8 p.m. Friday and Quincy, reported in the state, at 7 p.m. Saturday.

GC's beat the Kahoks 72-88 earlier and are second to Edwardsville (6-0) with a 5-1 Southwestern Conference record while Collinsville is fourth at 3-3.

But the Kahoks home floor is a "make or break" that has foisted many superior teams in the past, and the Collinsville players have improved with experience.

Alton is a close third in the standings at 5-2, Belleville West and Wood River are 1-5 and East St. Louis 1-6.

Quincy's Blue Devils have a 15-1 season mark and have beaten both Edwardsville and Collinsville. The lone loss was by a point to Moline in December.

Madison, 2-2 and third in the Midwestern Conference to Roxana's 3-0 and Quincy's 4-2, is in the Belleville East invitational meet this week and will play there tonight against Belleville West and Saturday against either Alton or Cahokia.

Fischer on Federal Worker Judging Board
Harold R. Fischer, chairman of the board, First Granite City National Bank, will serve as one of five men for the distinguished citizens committee of judges to select federal civil service employees for special recognition.

Other judges include Edwin S. Jones, Chairman, President of the First National Bank in St. Louis and president of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce; Conway B. Briscoe, president, Board of Public Service, city of St. Louis; Professor Sanford E. Sarason, St. Louis University and President of the Bar Association of St. Louis; and Dean John B. Ervin, Washington University, and director of the Adult Education Council of the city.

Each federal agency on both sides of the river will spotlight employees who have demonstrated exceptional quality of performance on the job, who also have been leaders in community service, and who have improved their value to their country by upgrading their education and training on their own personal time.

The judges will select one winner in three different categories of work. Fields to be judged are administrative services, managerial and technical, and professional and scientific. Carl Webber, vice-president for Research and Development, Lancaster Steel Co., will serve as master of ceremonies for the awards program and banquet to be held in the Khorassan Room Park-Chase Plaza Hotel on March 7.

Certificate Presented
Four special certificates of appreciation were presented at the dinner, the 48th annual meeting of the council.

Mathias, service area manager for Illinois Power Co., received a resolution of appreciation and a plaque for his service as president from 1967 through 1968. During the two years, the council had a growth in membership and reached an all-time high in the number of scouting units and budget.

Winter, associate editor of the Press-Record, and Simon, Edwardsville banker, received certificates of appreciation for their service as chairmen for the past two years of the Uniwah and Illinois districts.

Col. Fox, retired deputy commander of the Army Depot, was presented a certificate of appreciation for his service as chairman of the 1968 Scout Fair and for his efforts in promotion of the camping program.

Outstanding accomplishments cited included an increase in boy membership and scout units over 1967, the fair, Klondike derby, Explorer auto road rally, first-class rank advancement and the appreciation dinner, where 30 adults received recognition for exceptional service to youth.

Hope to Serve Third of Boys
It was noted that the new national long-range program "BoyPower 76," is a challenge both for membership growth to reach a full third or more of the available boys and a top quality program in camping, advancement, activities and in volunteer training.

The council ended 1968 with 4170 boys enrolled, including an increased number in low income areas.

Scout Executive Eugene Cox presented an annual report showing emphasis on outdoor activities, training, advancement and extension of scouting in rural areas. He said 1969 goals have been set for districts, and units will be measured according to a new national standard.

flying school and a dealership in Cessna and Piper Cub planes. Brown Aviation now has gasoline, oil and maintenance facilities. It currently has a full-time staff of six persons, including mechanics, plus an additional four who are available to help. Both of the Browns are pilots and aircraft mechanics, and the younger Brown recalled that he obtained his pilot's license at Lakeside in 1952 at the age of 16.

Airport to Grow

He said the company hopes the airport will match the Civic Memorial airport at Bethalto, a tax-supported unit, within five years.

Though Brown Aviation is a private enterprise, young Brown said he has a considerable amount of financial backing. He foresees a greater future for the airport especially if a proposed industrial park is developed on adjacent acreage and if Highway 111 becomes a four-lane artery with a railroad overpass, as proposed by the state.

The younger Brown, a lay Baptist minister, now employed as a pipefitter at the Union division of Miles Laboratories in Granite City, commented that obtaining the state certificate was a struggle as there was a great amount of opposition by private interests, including other airports in the region, which preferred to see Lakeside remain closed. His father is employed by Cessna at Parks Bi-State airport at Cahokia.

The Browns expect sufficient improvement to attract a considerable amount of business by summer, and as to the immediate future, they will have six planes available for rent for this weekend's open house.

Though Lakeside has been considered as the site for another major metropolitan area airport, the Browns feel that the major facility should be located farther away and that

Council Supports Police Plan to Fight Street Crime

Granite City council members adopted a resolution Monday night to support a program of the Madison-St. Clair County Police Chiefs' Association to seek federal planning funds for a two-county program to combat crime on the streets.

Police Chief Veizer said $333,220 is being allocated to police departments throughout the state on a 90-10% basis, and that by combining funds from more departments of the two counties that sufficient federal funds should be available. He added that in-service work by Granite City officers in developing the organization should be ample to cover the city's 10% share without any outlay of cash.

The program, he added, would be to establish a computerized center to serve the two counties and to provide training facilities and research programs to update law enforcement procedures. Later federal grants would be available for building and staffing the center.

Veizer said it is hoped there will be sufficient funds initially to hire a professional planner.

New GC Precincts Being Selected

Granite City council members readopted a resolution Monday night setting forth city precinct polling places for the Feb. 11 primary election for mayor. Changes are being made each week, and announcements of the locations will be made next Monday. Changes are being made each week, and announcements of the locations will be made next Monday.

During the session, City Atty. Scroggins presented legal opinions pointing out that city precinct lines need not be established and that the voter could select the precinct polling place in his ward closest to his home. He also called attention to the new state law requiring persons to be registered to vote in municipal elections. Arrangements are being made for registration books to be prepared for the city's seven new wards. Council members voted, pending a legal opinion, to purchase meals for election judges on Feb. 11 and on April 1 since the $25 maximum pay cannot be increased. It was noted the school district pays for election judges during school votes. Whitmer pointed out it has been his custom in his precinct to buy the judges' meals. He added that school board members receive no salary, while aldermen do. Bartosik complained that the $25 fee now is too low and that it is virtually impossible to employ persons for the election judge posts.

MORE ABOUT Beautification

range from educational activity to discourage the littering of the water by users of Alton Lake to highly organized beautification programs on the property of large industries to help improve the general environment.

Barban, during the question and answer program responded to a question by Granite City Mayor Partney as to whether the organization ever had sought federal funds, with the remarks:

"I'm convinced that if we had a million dollars, the program would be a flop."

Barban said that the Pride program means just what it says—pride of the people in themselves for the accomplishments they achieve in making their communities a better place to live.

Part of The Action "If we were able to get large sums of money, the people would just quit and say: 'You have the money; you go ahead and do it.' As it is now, the people feel they are part of the action. They are doing the work and if they run up against a problem that involves money, they solve it."

Barban said Pride, Inc. never has made an application for federal funds "and has not even considered it."

Pride, Inc. volunteers are organized on a block-by-block basis, he explained, with each block headed by a captain. Volunteers in each of these groups meet regularly to discuss projects and means of meeting problems of projects they already have underway.

Among guests at the Rotary Club meeting were Mayor Partney, Howard Cokutt, secretary of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, and Clifton Blankenship, C. of C. president.

First GC National Bank Announces Six Promotions

All directors were re-elected and six promotions were announced during Tuesday's meetings of the First Granite City National Bank stockholders and directors at the bank.

Directors re-elected are Harold R. Fischer, chairman of the board; Lyle P. Guiley, president of Granite City Steel Co.; Howard W. Kaseberg, farmer; Paul H. Lichtenberger, bank president; S. E. Pershall, chairman, Tri-City Grocery Co.; S. E. Pershall Jr., president, Tri-City Grocery Co.; Carl A. Ranft, general manager Tri-City Regional Port Authority; John W. Reese, executive vice-president, Reese Drug Stores; Otto H. Romann, farmer; John J. Stolze, vice-president and secretary Stolze Lumber Co.; Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman and chief executive officer, Granite City Steel Co.; Melvin C. Wilmseyer, executive vice-president of the bank; and Marjorie E. Wilson, president, S. M. Wilson & Co.

Immediately following the stockholders meeting, the newly elected board of directors met to organize and elect officers for the coming year. Fischer was re-elected chairman of the board of directors and S. E. Pershall, chairman of the executive committee.

Promotions Announced

The board then announced the following promotions: Howard L. Etherton, formerly assistant vice-president, installment loan department, to vice-president, installment loans; Walter K. Gavlick, formerly vice-president real estate loan department, to vice-president, real estate loan department. He also was named chairman of the board of directors in the commercial loan area.

Alex Schenchoff, formerly assistant cashier, was promoted to assistant vice-president, installment loans; Harry Johnson named manager of the credit department; Herbert Camren, formerly an assistant in the real estate loan department and Edw. Uhercik, formerly an assistant cashier.

Officers re-appointed were P. H. Lichtenberger, president; M. C. Wilmseyer, executive vice-president; C. L. Gavin, senior vice-president; H. G. Bauman, vice-president and trust officer; J. J. Pitman, vice-president and controller; Earl Dotzauer, cashier; G. W. Reeves, assistant vice-president; E. R. Pierce, assistant cashier and Jack J. Cook, auditor.

Chairman Fischer commenting on the election of directors, stated, "It is indeed gratifying and I think that we are very fortunate that these men, all of whom have attained positions of prominence in the agricultural, commercial and industrial fields in our community, have again indicated their willingness and desire to give of their time and efforts to direct the operations of your bank in the coming year."

"On behalf of our officers and employees, I pledge our wholehearted cooperation with your board to make 1969 an even more satisfactory year than any in the past and to expand and enlarge our services to our community."

Record Earnings President Lichtenberger, in reviewing operating results for 1968, stated:

"During the past year, we achieved new all-time highs in both gross and net operating earnings."

"Net operating earnings for 1968 amounted to $240,443 or $4.26 per share, as compared to re-stated 1967 earnings of $296,025 or $3.70 per share, an increase of 15%. Re-statement of earnings for 1967 was created by an adjustment in our reserve for loan loss accruals, with a resultant decrease in income tax liability for that year."

"Our drop in loans for the year was not due to a reduction in local loaning activities, but to the discontinuance of the purchase of certain types of loans in the New York money market. Our year-end statement shows some drop in deposits from the previous year, due mainly to a substantial loss in the deposit maintained by the treasurer of the state of Illinois and by the effect on our local economy of loss of pay-

Summons Issued For Junk Yard

A hearing is set for 10 a.m. tomorrow in magistrate court here on a summons issued last week by City Inspector Jack Fricker against Jay Simmons of Tri-City Auto Sales on a charge of maintaining a nuisance by stacking wrecked autos and trucks on a vacant lot on the southeast corner, 18th street and Cleveland blvd.

The corner was discussed during Monday night's Granite City council session when Alderman Nom described it as "a regular junk yard" and a major stumbling block in the city's efforts to beautify the downtown district.

He called upon the city attorney to take any legal steps necessary. "The wrecked vehicles are being moved across the sidewalk and wrecking the walkway. We're wasting our time in trying to improve the business district if we don't clean this up."

Simmons told the Press-Record he is storing the vehicles on the lot and plans to fence it. He added that his firm repairs them for resale.

Kiwanis Hear Status Report On Police Dept.

Edwin Moore, president, conducted his first meeting of the Kiwanis Club Monday evening, at the Rose Bowl with 22 members and four guests present. Guests included Richard Goff of Gitchoff Real Estate, Robert Harris from H. M. Dinzel Equipment Co., George Cook, Miles Laboratories, and Dr. Hugh M. Brooks, chiropractic physician.

Joseph Nemeth, Granite City police department liaison officer for the States Attorney office. He spoke on the topic "Law and order and what the citizens can do to uphold the law in the community." Nemeth said "Many groups, including the Kiwanis Club, can assist the department in solving some of the current problems." He explained the local police department consists of 41 officers, including the chief, assistant chief, chief of detectives, four lieutenants, 30 sergeants and 30 patrolmen. "The department is on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week," he added. "The police officer," Nemeth noted, "has improved his image in recent years from the 'cop' illustrated in magazines as a big, dumb, gut foot—the center of many jokes—to a family man working to make a living for his family while contributing to his community."

A probationary patrolman is required to attend eight to 10 weeks of police school and must pass the school exams to become a member of the force. After being accepted, all officers are required to attend seminars and refresher courses, to bring them up-to-date with the latest court decisions and new laws.

Officers decisions are based on Supreme Court law interpretations. The local department, he added, has a traffic division, detective division and juvenile division and the equipment includes two unmarked cars, two station wagons, one radar car, four marked patrol cars, two solo motorcycles for traffic and two-three wheel mopeds for parking meters and traffic control.

Nemeth said a number of cities find it difficult to fill vacancies in police departments because of bad publicity and accusations of police brutality, but this city "has one of the finest police departments in the state." Concluding his talk, Nemeth showed a film entitled "Every Hour, Every Day" which deals with situations that a police officer is confronted with each day of his life. William Herman in thanking the speaker for his appearance presented him with a Certificate of Appreciation from the club. Marvin Barnes gave a short talk on the 54th anniversary of Kiwanis, stating that the Kiwanis Club was started in Detroit, Mich., on Jan. 21, 1915, and has grown over the 54 years to 800 clubs with 200,000 members all over the world. Also announced was a mid-winter Kiwanis District 14 seminar to be held at the Stratford Hotel in Alton on Tuesday, Jan. 28. Local members to attend will be Edwin Moore, Norman Hall, George Groves, Marvin Barnes, Alvin Gross, Peter Jelen and Melvin Gille. Plans also are under way for a "Ladies Night," under the direction of Herbert Schannott and Peter Jelen.

Council Overrides 2 Vetoes by Mayor in Engineer Dispute

Granite City council members rebuffed city engineering problems over the past two decades in voting Monday night to override two vetoes by Mayor Partney—both pertaining to engineering.

The mayor vetoed the council's actions of naming Kenneth Kieberger of the St. Louis engineering firm of Research Planning & Design Associates as consulting engineer for the calendar year and a resolution to transfer $4000 to a "non-existent" engineering fund.

The vote to override the engineer contract was 11-5, while the vote to override the $4000 fund transfer veto was 12-4.

In vetoing the consulting engineer contract, Mayor Partney said the council has a legal opinion that it can not contract for services for which there is no appropriation. Before adopting the 1968-69 budget last summer, the council eliminated the appropriation for engineering services.

Alderman Johnson, who called for the council to reconsider its action and to override the veto, pointed out that Assistant City Atty. Harry Hartman had stressed the need for adequate watch over streets going into new subdivisions to prevent lawsuits. That was during a caucus preceding the council session.

"We can't sit here and quibble. We've got to consider what is best for the people," Johnson added. "Politics is not entering into this."

Alderman Basarich said he was willing to admit the council had made a mistake in removing the engineering item from the budget. He added that the mayor's action could block special improvement projects and that cooperation was needed.

Rutledge reminded the council that the city had an ordinance with an $8500 annual salary for a public engineer, but the salary was removed to spite the mayor. He continued, "There's no doubt it was over personalities. I voted for Research Planning & Design for motor fuel tax engineer work, but there's no money in the budget for a consulting engineer. You know what you were doing, and it backfired."

He was answered by Moerlein, who said the engineering discussions contained too many inconsistencies meeting after meeting. "The mayor appointed an engineer for 30 days. After the first 30-day appointment, council members should have been able to vote on the proposal. However, the mayor's engineer resigned."

"We have funds in the budget to pay for engineering and can transfer from the contingent fund to cover any oversight or error in the budget. RP&D is charging the city less under its motor fuel tax contract," Moerlein remarked.

Johnson then called again for a vote, saying action was needed to get projects done. He said he had heard insinuations that Kieberger had given money to aldermen. He asked the engineer directly, Kieberger replied, emphatically, "No sir."

Voting for the reconsideration motion and to override the mayor's veto were Aldermen Dallas, Moerlein, Boyd, Poulos, Green, Basarich, Nona, Parmley, Robertson, Dawes and Johnson. Opposed were Bartosik, Whitmer, Rutledge, Fry and Jarrett.

Mayor Partney then read his second veto message to block the $4000 transfer from the contingent to the engineering fund, approved by the council several weeks ago.

He told the council that when the public engineer ordinance was changed to drop the $8500 salary, that he had advised the aldermen of the city's need for an engineer. I vetoed that action, too, but it was overridden."

Johnson commented, "If you sit back and veto this, the town will go stale. I recall the legal opinion stated we could not raise the appropriation. This is not an increase, it's a transfer."

Basarich added that the contingent fund is established for emergencies. "I've got some projects in my ward and I want them done."

Boyd remarked, "We definitely need engineering services, and the contingent fund was increased in the last budget so we would not have to increase the appropriation."

The vote to override the second veto was 12-4, with Whitmer, Rutledge, Fry and Jarrett voting "no."

"AL'S CORNER"
"STOP THE PRESSES"

Joe Borbieri, Tri-City's head produce buyer, (if you think I'm going to use a Henny Youngman joke about he buys heads you're wrong) came busting in my office yesterday morning yelling (boy does he know how to yell) about what a fantastic buy he made on Texas Ruby Red Grapefruit. Well right away I know that something is going to get worked out of the produce. Ad, so I call up the local newspaper and yell "STOP THE PRESSES", which is kinda silly 'cause they aren't even going to print until day after tomorrow. To anyone, Joe tells me to take our RUSSET POTATOES and put in GRAPEFRUIT which might not sound like such a big deal, but if you'll check Tri-City's price against what our competition is getting you'll see why Joe and I did all that yelling...

County EOC Borrows $15,000; Grant Delayed

A $15,000 emergency $60-day loan enabling the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission to continue operations until its federal grant arrives was received this week from the Edwardsville National Bank and Trust Co., Victor Darnell, assistant EOC director said yesterday.

The EOC official noted that a $13,539 federal grant is expected by mid-February. The grant was authorized last week. Darnell said a maximum payment of $176 interest is anticipated on the loan which was borrowed at 7% interest. It is the first time the county EOC agency has found it necessary to borrow funds to finance its programs pending receipt of an authorized grant.

3 Quad-Cityans Among Revenue Agents Dismissed

Three Quad-Cityans are among 27 inspectors in the Illinois Department of Revenue who received dismissal notices Tuesday from the new director, George E. Mahin. The announcement of the dismissals was made in Springfield, and the agents received certified notices.

Meridith Mullen of Madison, a former field supervisor for the 11-county district office in East St. Louis, told the Press-Record that he and the 11 other agents in the office, who have been dismissed, were full-time workers.

Others from here who were dismissed include Casmer Skubish and Madison Alderman Jan Haynes.

Mullen said as spokesman for the district agents they are denying the allegations of holding down other full time jobs. "The staff has been highly efficient and that the dismissals leave the state without a tax police force. In December, the 11 men collected $72,000 in back sales tax due to the state."

Skubish added that on many occasions it has been necessary to work evenings as well as days to make business contacts at places that are open only in the evenings.

Mullen continued that all agents working out of the East St. Louis district kept close watch on expense allowances.

Mullen added that he is a certified state employee under civil service and that the other agents had successfully completed the civil service examination.

Trucker Arrested For Unsafe Load

Frederic A. Ferguson, 38, St. Louis, was arrested by Venice police Monday at Fourth street and Broadway and charged with driving a truck carrying an unsafe load. Police said the truck was loaded with crushed scrap autos.

Ferguson posted $50 cash bond pending a Feb. 28 hearing. Police said Ferguson was driving a truck of the Bano Metal Co., St. Louis. Last week a truck carrying scrap autos from the same firm spilled its load in the 200 block of Madison avenue, damaging four parked autos and tying up traffic for several hours.

Following the incident, in Madison, Venice Police Chief John Essington notified all patrolmen to be alert for improperly loaded or overloaded trucks.

Park District Adds Precinct, Buys Equipment

The Granite City park board voted last night to add a third voting precinct for this year's park district election and to purchase voting booths and ballot boxes to equip the precincts.

The new precinct, will include all of the park district territory south of the railroad tracks. Voters will ballot in the Community Center building. Precinct One will include park district territory between the railroad tracks and Nameoki road and Precinct Two will include all of the district located east of Nameoki road.

Frank Rea, board secretary, said the precinct One polling place will be located in the Wilson Park Ice Rink and for Precinct Two is expected to remain unchanged from last year at the Junior Achievement Center.

The district will purchase nine voting booths at an estimated cost of $30 each and three ballot boxes at a cost of from $15 to $20 each. The park district election, in which only one member of the five-man board will be elected, will be held on April 1 this year.

Used Borrowed Boats Rea pointed out that decision to purchase voting booths and ballot boxes was approved to eliminate difficulties in borrowing the equipment. In the past the district has borrowed booths and boxes from Granite City township which also holds an election on the same day as the park district.

The board also approved use of the Wilson Park Ice skating rink for special sessions planned for the March of Dimes benefit programs.

A special session will be held Feb. 12 from 8:30 a.m. to noon for junior high school pupils and one will be held Feb. 22 from 9:45 p.m. to 11:45 p.m. for high school pupils. Proceeds will go to the March of Dimes campaign. The park district will charge only its expenses for use of the rink.

The board also voted to send Park Supt. Harold Brown to the annual convention of the Great Lakes Park and Recreation Council to be held March 9 through 12 at Columbus, Ohio.

114 Granite City Jaycees Observing National Week

Mayor Donald Partney has proclaimed this week as "Jaycee Week" in Granite City and is asking local organizations to co-operate in the observance.

In issuing a proclamation Tuesday, the city's chief executive said, "The purpose of Jaycee Week is to focus attention on young men and the work they are doing and to emphasize that the Granite City Jaycees have done an outstanding job in the fields of community development, youth programs and religious activities."

The week-long observance celebrates the founding of the Jaycees in 1915, when Henry Giessemer saw a need for a young men's civic group and organized the first chapter, according to Richard A. Dawdy, president of the Granite City Jaycees.

The movement spread so rapidly that in 1920, the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed with 24 cities represented in the national organization. The name was changed to the U. S. Jaycees in 1965.

Built a foundation of creating opportunities for leadership training through community development, the Jaycees today, over 30,000 strong, are active in 6,000 communities in the United States.

Local Jaycees in 1940. The Granite City chapter, organized in the early 1940s, now boasts 114 members. Within the past year, local Jaycees have sponsored numerous events of benefit to youth and community.

Among their successful achievements was the ninth annual "Bowling Sweepstakes," conducted in cooperation with local bowling leagues which resulted in two plastic crib covers being presented to the pediatric ward of St. Elizabeth Hospital, together with a party for youngsters confined to the hospital at Christmas time. Yuletide gift baskets delivered to needy families and clothing for disadvantaged children.

Plans for developing a playground site in the West Granite area were furthered when recreational equipment was purchased and installed in an area adjacent to the Jaycee club house on the 1800 block of Poplar street. Part of the funds used

PROCLAMATION
WHEREAS, the civic bodies and service organizations of the community and the departments of the local government recognize the great service rendered to this community by the Granite City Jaycees, and

WHEREAS, the United States Jaycees and its affiliated state and local organizations have set aside the week of Jan. 19-25, 1969, to observe the founding of the Jaycees and to commemorate such founding by the selection of an outstanding young man in this community as the recipient of the Distinguished Service Award; and

WHEREAS, this organization of young men has contributed materially in the betterment of this community throughout the year.

THEREFORE, I, Donald Partney, Mayor of the city of Granite City, do hereby proclaim the week of Jan. 19-25, 1969, as JAYCEE WEEK and urge all citizens of our community to give full consideration to the future services of the Jaycees.

DONALD PARTNEY, Mayor

Repeating their attraction for hundreds of participating Quad-Cityans were two traditional Jaycee events—the Miss Granite City contest and the annual homecoming celebration.

On Halloween Night, the young men's service club sponsored a teenage dance at Nameoki Village shopping center and provided free bus transportation to the event.

The club voted to furnish daily lunches for the entire school year for a young McKinley student; and helped underwrite the expenses of Miss Granite City during appearances on behalf of the Tri-Cities United Fund campaign.

As in previous years, the Jaycees continued to assist St. Elizabeth Hospital staff members each first Saturday of the month at the hospital's free immunization clinic; sponsored a successful "Jaycee Church Day," and hosted the district Junior Sports Jambo in May.

Also in May, Granite City Jaycees garnered several honors at the state convention in Chicago. After capturing local and district honors, three local men—Ronald Pennell, Richard A. Dawdy and Alfred J. Wilson—won top awards at the state level.

Adding to the local honors was selection of Boyd Presley as one of four outstanding vice-presidents in the state Jaycee organization. He was chosen from a field of 38 state vice-presidential candidates.

Climaxing the year was the announcement in November that Granite City has been selected as the site for the Illinois Junior Sports Jambooree this August, an event which will attract more than 1,000 youthful contestants, their parents and supporters to the local community.

Council Oks Rezoning For Beauty Shop

Approved by Granite City council members Monday night was a petition for rezoning a house at 2137 Pontoon road as C-1 commercial for a beauty shop. Action was deferred at the Jan. 6 meeting by Aldermen Johnson and Moenlin.

The request was made by Dr. Hector Zavallas, and was approved unanimously Monday night. Johnson said he had asked for deferral because a notice he received from the Plan Commission arrived too late.

The rezoning, which is in the beauty shop supply business, had a heated exchange over the deferral action of two weeks ago. The house is located next to a market.

A request was made to hold an action on a Zoning Board of Appeals denial of an extension to a carport with a two-foot side property line at the home of William Fries, 3023 Myrtle avenue.

Bartoski requested the delay, saying he had something to say but he had to leave the meeting to go to work. The carport request was by William Fries, 3023 Myrtle avenue.

A neighbor, Harold Carter, appeared before the council Monday and urged the council to uphold the board decision, saying the carport created a drainage problem on his property and that supports were not in compliance with the board's original order of about four months ago.

Upheld by the council was the Appeal Board's decision to deny permission to Steve Benko to extend a cover for a patio and carport to within two feet of the property line at 2440 Iowa street.

First DeMolay Tickets Bought by Sternberg

C. H. Sternberg, president of Optimist International, received the first tickets for the Granite City chapter, Order of DeMolay, annual chili supper to be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Feb. 16 in the Masonic Temple.

Keith Darner, DeMolay master counselor, made the presentation this week. Sternberg is a senior DeMolay and holder of the Legion of Honor degree.

Darner noted that DeMolay is celebrating its 50th anniversary and the gold and blue chili supper tickets bear the 50th anniversary motto, "90 Years of Young Men on the Go."

He also said that it was appropriate that Sternberg should be the first to donate to the local chapter's fund raising activity as Optimist International also is celebrating its 50th anniversary and has the motto "Friend of the Boy."

Proceeds from the event will be used to finance the chapter's operations.

Water Co. Will Provide Service On Angela Drive

Residents of the 2700 block of Angela drive who sought help of Nameoki township officials last spring to obtain water service in the area will be given service by the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. under a circuit court ruling by Associate Judge Fred Schuman at Edwardsville, it was reported today.

Harry Briggs, supervisor of Nameoki township, said he has been notified by Township Atty. Nick Vassileff that the ruling was handed down in court proceedings instituted by Morris Roney, developer of the area, and naming the Pontoon Beach Water District as a respondent.

Briggs said he also has been advised that the water company already has petitioned the Illinois Commerce Commission for authority to make the installations necessary to serve the area.

The court proceedings were initiated to determine the district responsible for extending service to homes along the midway in the 2600 block through the 2700 block of Angela drive.

Sought Township Aid
Last spring a delegation of residents from the area appeared before the town board and said numerous efforts had been made to determine which water district was responsible for providing water to the area.

Residents said they understood their area was in the Pontoon Beach Water district, but that the district did not have sufficient funds to extend service.

At that time, the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. had installed water service to the middle of the 2600 block of Angela drive, but had not gone beyond that point because the area was in Pontoon Beach.

Andy Bukovac, president of the Pontoon Beach Water District, said the district had no intention of protesting extension of service into the area by any other district.

"We are glad to see the people get water service and our district had no objection to installations in the area. Our district was financially unable to do the work," Bukovac said.

A total of 3797 births occurred in Madison county last year, an increase of 176 over the 1967 total of 3621. Births included 1926 boys and 1871 girls. Forty sets of twins were born in 1968, compared to 21 sets of twins in 1967.

The number of deaths in Madison county in 1968 fell off slightly to a total of 1960, Miss Hotz reported. A total of 1988 deaths occurred in 1967.

Rare Opportunity to Improve the State Constitution of Illinois

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

Illinois citizens have an opportunity—the first time in 50 years—to rewrite the state constitution.

If and when revised, or if amended, the present constitution, voters will have to decide whether, in the final analysis, they want a change.

The present constitution, the third in Illinois' history, was adopted in 1870.

The holding of a constitutional convention, for the purpose of drafting a new or amended constitution, was approved by voters in 1918. However, after the convention was held and a new constitution was drafted, it was rejected by voters in the referendum.

Now that voters have again approved a convention call, it is the legislature's responsibility to make the necessary arrangements, including appropriation of money to cover convention costs and to pay the salaries of delegates.

The Illinois Constitution Study Commission, set up to recommend to the legislature the method of electing convention delegates. The legislature must determine when the election should be held and if it should be partisan or non-partisan.

A total of 118 delegates, or two delegates from each senatorial district, will be elected.

To qualify as a candidate for election, a person must be at least 25 years old, a citizen, and have resided a minimum of five years in Illinois and two years in the state senatorial district.

Delegates meet within three months after their election to hold an unlimited convention.

This means that after reviewing the present constitution, they may propose any amendments or revisions—including, if they see fit, an entirely new constitution.

Once the draft is completed, the convention sets a date on which the people may vote on the new or revised constitution.

Revisions require a "yes" vote from a majority of those voting at an election held not sooner than two months and not later than six months after the convention.

What's the matter with the state's present constitution? The advocates of revision say the document is too specific and inflexible.

Here are some of the things they say should be done:

1. Revise the revenue article to provide for a broader base for taxation and raise the debt limitations of state and local governments.
2. Make it easier to amend the constitution.
3. Provide annual state budget sessions to allow low annual budgets.
4. Revise the constitution to be a body of principles somewhat in the manner of the much shorter U. S. Constitution, rather than a lengthy list of limitations.
5. Remove obsolete provisions like those calling for financing of the 1890 Columbian Exposition, establishing a street railroad, constructing the state-house and restricting suffrage to males (a provision which was nullified by adoption of the 19th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution).

"Child slavery, prostitution, feeble-mindedness, physical degradation, hunger, oppression and war will disappear from the earth." The only prerequisite for instituting this millennium is the introduction of birth control techniques.

So wrote Margaret Sanger in a book published in 1920, an excerpt from which forms one of the selections in this new book of readings edited by Arthur and Lila Weinberg.

The authors propose to give the reader a survey of the diverse American utopian visions which were introduced to cure this country's social, political and economic ills between the years 1820 and 1920.

Generally, the selections are interesting and pose some important questions, such as: Has the United States been

'Helping, Caring, Doing' By Each of Us Will Decide Extent of Our Progress As a Nation

The concise, inspirational inaugural address of President Nixon was general enough and yet touched on so many points that all listeners could find some phrase that agrees with their attitude or some goal which they support.

Not surprisingly, one of the major portions was the assertion that "to match the magnitude of our tasks, we need the energies of our people—enlisted not only in grand enterprises, but more importantly in those small, splendid efforts that make headlines in the neighborhood newspaper instead of the national journal."

Many of the undertakings and achievements headlined in the Press-Record are news-worthies primarily in the community which they occur. Other population centers and their newspapers meanwhile are occupied with activities taking place there.

But such events are important, even if not nationally known, because America is the sum total of many counties and municipalities—and a nation cannot thrive unless its communities are meeting with success in solving the problems that confront them.

At this early stage in the new administration, it cannot be known whether it will be a success or failure, but the new president succeeds, because that will mean the United States and its people have attained progress and improvement.

But there can be no doubt that whatever is accomplished will stem from personal involvement—individual effort above and beyond basic citizenship duties. In the words of the new national leader:

"Our greatest need now is to reach beyond government to enlist the legions of the concerned and the committed. What has to be done, has to be done by government and people together or it will not be done at all."

"Without the people we can do nothing; with the people we can do everything."

Through "those small, splendid efforts that make headlines in the community newspaper," we can build a great cathedral of the spirit, each of us raising it one stone at a time as he reaches out to his neighbor—helping, caring, doing.

"...The concept of freedom is that each of us shares in the shaping of his own destiny. Until he has been part of a cause larger than himself, no man is truly whole. The way to fulfillment is in the use of his talents."

Non-Partisan Delegate Election if New Constitution Is to Have Chance of Success

Political parties are likely to have a big influence on which candidates are elected as Illinois constitutional convention delegates, but we are surprised and disheartened by the serious consideration being given to partisan election of delegates.

Democrats and Republicans might prefer differing constitutional wording, but it will stand little chance of success if it becomes overly partisan.

State spending for the 1965-67 biennium was a $1.1 billion. Of this $1.1 billion was from the state General Fund and $2 billion was from dedicated funds.

The largest portion of the dedicated revenues is for highways, which are funded by the gasoline tax and various license fees.

The remainder of the dedicated funds primarily is used for building programs and for federal-state matching programs.

The General Fund revenue primarily comes from sales taxes.

The next most important revenue source is the income tax return—erm... and that money is largely funneled into public assistance and welfare. Numerous other state taxes contribute to the General Fund.

Nearly half of the General Fund—$1,100,000,000—during the 1965-67 biennium went to education.

Another $800 million went to health and welfare.

Of the remaining $600 million, $200 million was for general state operation, $100 million for debt service, $100 million for public safety and the rest was for miscellaneous services.

The state budget proposed to the last session of the Illinois General Assembly called for an increase from $1.1 billion to $1,800,000,000. This included an increase in General Fund spending of $1 billion from $2½ billion to $3½ billion.

The next existing General Fund tax sources were expected to produce an additional $1.5 billion, leaving a shortage of $650 million.

To cover this shortage, Otto identified with any one party. That could happen if there is partisan voting in the same districts. Republicans have gained a nearly 2-to-1 edge in the state senate.

Because it is important that Illinois obtain an improved, amended constitution, every possible step should be taken to encourage preparation of an effective document and then ratification by voters. This includes non-partisan selection of delegates dedicated only to the cause of better government.

Suits Eliminate Any Basis for Continuing Highway Fund Freeze

Filing of Justice Department suits against three labor unions in this region, charging unfair hiring practices, provides an additional argument for the immediate ending of the ban on federally-aided highway construction in Madison and St. Clair counties.

Regardless of the validity of the charges, which can be determined at court hearings, it can be said that the suits have as their subject the same issue that led to the fund freeze.

Since it can be assumed that the suits will succeed in achieving justice in the matter, there is no longer any reason why highway users and the economy of our state should be penalized.

Approval of Revised Master Plan By All Agencies a Big Milestone for Granite City

City council approval of the new Granite City master plan for future growth gives the municipality a chance to more efficiently coordinate its actions with school, housing and park planning.

Updating of the plan to look as far ahead as 1985 is a big milestone. Now that it has obtained the general approval of all official government agencies, including the school board and developers will be able to chart their future plans with greater precision and less risk of incompatible improvement projects.

Great Interest in Venice-Madison Program to Encourage New Homes

The Madison-Venice program for replacement of dilapidated homes with new residences is so logical that it is a wonder it was not thought of before by national housing officials. Recent regulations permit such an approach, utilizing private financing and also federal and municipal funds under certain conditions.

The plans that have been made call for a strong local voice throughout, and wisely require both cities to have comprehensive planning and zoning in effect before proceeding.

Residents will watch with great interest as the renewal of selected small locations is carried out. Some such mechanism for substituting modern accommodations for aged dwellings has long ranked as one of the major needs of the urban areas of America.

Plenty of 'Socks' By Outgoing Officials

Maybe it's because we have been affected by not one but two governmental transitions—state and national—but the number of last-minute actions by outgoing officials has seemed unusually large.

At the worst, such moves are viewed as an attempt to take actions contrary to the public mandate expressed in the November election. At the best, the actions between balloting and inauguration is seen as a time when unpopular but needed rulings, appointments and decisions can be made without putting newly-elected officials "on the spot" with voters.

Between the two extremes, it could be that the relinquishing of authority is such a jolting experience that many find an irresistible temptation to get in a few parting jolts of their own, to tide them over until they may be able to regain office.

Another possible explanation: There was so much campaign use of the phrase, "Socks it to them!", that it was decided to do just that.

Partney Role in Past STRIKE AIDED WORKERS

An apology to Mayor Partney concerning the Union Strikers' strike.

As past vice-president of the Ladies' auxiliary of Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Local 7-663 and a picket in front of the Granite City city hall during the Union Strikers' strike, I feel, after learning the facts about our mayor's efforts on our behalf, that we who were involved owe the mayor the deepest, most humble apologies.

Not only do I feel we should all apologize to such a fine man as our mayor, I also believe we owe him our utmost support. And I am personally going to assist him in every way possible in his effort for re-election as mayor of Granite City.

At the time the ladies' auxiliary was ordered to picket city hall, I questioned the reason and was told, "Just do it, I did it, Mr. Mayor, and I am truly ashamed."

The thing that brought this all about was the many conflicting comments I kept hearing about what he was and was not doing. I heard some pretty mean things, and then I heard some very nice things to the point that I decided to try and run the stories down. I found...

What I found out was that I had been used by some labor leaders to embarrass the mayor and blame him because these labor leaders couldn't settle the strike. They wanted the union workers to feel someone else was to blame instead of themselves.

What I really found out was that the mayor was actually helping the union in many, many ways—which included cash contributions to us.

Believe me, I saw checks made out to the "Union Strikers' Auxiliary," signed by Donald Partney, with the paid stamp marked on them. I had actually signed one myself.

Not only had the mayor given us cash but he had assisted strikers' families. This didn't happen just once, but on several occasions.

I found that ministerial help proposed and arranged for us by the mayor had actually been refused by our union leaders. Certainly, our God in heaven must have looked down with disfavor on that move.

Not only did the mayor help us directly but I found that he was in continual meetings and conversations with plant officials and the government negotiators.

It was surprising to find that while the union was blaming

Pollution May Affect Behavior

(American Chemical Society)

Some common air pollutants affect animals' brains and, consequently, their behavior. The magazine "Environmental Science and Technology."

Carbon monoxide makes experimental animals drowsy, lead disturbs their sleep, and ozone excites their brains at low levels and depresses them at high levels, according to a report by Charles Xintaras, head of the National Air Pollution Control Administration's behavioral toxicology unit.

Using an instrument called an electroencephalograph to record brainwave patterns and a computer to put the patterns into a meaningful mathematical relationship, researchers have discovered that the three pollutants affect the brain's electrical activity, an indicator of levels of consciousness.

Carbon monoxide's effects were determined by first hooking up the instrument to rats and getting a brainwave pattern when the animals were exposed to flashing light. The rats were then exposed to carbon monoxide, and the impulses from the brain recorded again.

The researchers found that the brainwave patterns under carbon monoxide exposure resembled those produced by the drug pentobarbital, a depressant, the report says.

It took 48 hours for the rats' responses to return to normal.

The ozone experiment was conducted using ozone, an air pollutant connected with smog formation, the American Chemical Society monthly points out.

The effects, judged by the brainwave patterns, are quite different from carbon monoxide's. Ozone causes a reduction in the original proposed budget. This was a greater accomplishment for the legislature than it appears.

To finance this, the legislature proposed an increase of three-fourths of one cent in the sales tax, an additional selective service Occupation Tax; an increase in the cigarette tax; a change in the inheritance tax base; an increase in the utility tax; a transfer of some dedicated funds to the General Fund; changing the state operational method to a target savings program; and doubling the corporate franchise tax, using this tax as a source of general revenue for the first time.

This action increased all General Fund tax sources except alcoholic beverage taxes.

The increased revenue was expected to leave a $700,000 surplus in the General Fund.

However, the inheritance tax changes were repealed and the limited Service Occupation Tax was declared invalid by the Illinois Supreme Court.

As a result, the precarious balance planned by the General Assembly became a deficit and there was no revenue available to fund the programs authorized.

And a change in conditions, also linked to a court ruling, made it certain that public assistance costs would be substantially higher than planned.

posed to low levels of carbon monoxide, he suggested. "The effects of lead, which could come from industrial fumes or automobile exhaust, the brain waves of sleepless rats were monitored in the journal notes. Lead-treated rats showed shortened and less stable sleep patterns, and some sleep patterns also became less regular."

"These changes in dream sleep may directly or indirectly reflect the impairment of a neural control system," Dr. Xintaras says. "Altered functions of the central nervous system may be evident before clinical signs and symptoms have been induced by exposure to toxic materials."

Dr. Xintaras indicates he is now ready to begin direct studies on the effects of pollution on behavior. During 1969, he plans to have a digital process control computer connected with each of five monkeys. Information such as brain, heart and lung action will be collected and correlated with the monkeys' responses to two types of behavioral tests involving decisions such as humans are called on to make.

The underlying importance of the work is to determine what factors in the environment are responsible for people to perform their jobs efficiently.

Dr. Xintaras comments, "Of course, we can't hope to assess every chemical in the air. We can hope to assess the more important ones in these terms: how they affect performance efficiency of a specific task. To do this we must also learn what that task demands of the brain."

Dr. Xintaras says that research suggests that ozone acts on a different site in the brain, whereas driving a car involves decision making, he says.

Another problem is redundancy, or the massive amount of information, both needed and needed, bombarding the brain. It may be difficult to measure the test animals' responses because, like the typist, they can still function doing simple mechanical operations despite the presence of air pollutants.

Only if they are given other tests requiring more complicated brain operations would the interference of the pollutants show up.

Inherited Property Not Taxed

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q. I inherited some property last year. Do I have to report this on my income tax return?

A. No, this does have to be reported.

However, if the property is sold, then the gain or loss on the sale must be reported.

Q. I just started working. Do I have to file an estimated tax return?

A. The tax withheld by your employer will probably satisfy most, if not all, of your tax liability. However, you should review your withholding situation each year to make sure you may find it desirable to file an estimated tax return on future income.

Q. I had to buy a car when I took a job as a traveling salesman. Can I deduct the purchase price as well as my operating expenses?

A. No. However, a car used for business purposes may be depreciated over its useful life and you may deduct the actual operating costs of your car for the year.

This would include depre-

Tax Repeal, Court Rulings Upset Precariously Balanced State Budget

(State Chamber of Commerce Tax Department)

On the surface, it appears that very little was accomplished. But almost always, there are projects not included in the state budget for which funds are appropriated.

Thirty-two additional dollars in the original proposed budget. This was a greater accomplishment for the legislature than it appears.

To finance this, the legislature proposed an increase of three-fourths of one cent in the sales tax, an additional selective service Occupation Tax; an increase in the cigarette tax; a change in the inheritance tax base; an increase in the utility tax; a transfer of some dedicated funds to the General Fund; changing the state operational method to a target savings program; and doubling the corporate franchise tax, using this tax as a source of general revenue for the first time.

Venice Uses 'Savings' to Meet Fund Costs

The city of Venice, which had put aside part of its tax income last fall, redeemed a $200,000 time savings certificate during December and made tax distributions of $85,983 to four of its major accounts, according to a report of City Treasurer Bernard Anderson.

In addition the city used income from the savings certificate to pay off $45,200 in monthly operational expenditures and re-invested $80,000 of the amount in a new 90-day time saving certificate.

In his report, Anderson showed total December revenue of $204,529, including the $200,000 savings fund, and total December disbursements of $190,353, including purchase of the new $80,000 time certificate.

The city's regular income during the month amounted to only $45,229, including $769 in fines received from criminal cases, $315 in truck and delivery licenses, $15 in city auto licenses and $1401 in state sales tax. The $200,000 from redemption of the time certificate and a $33,707 balance of Dec. 1 gave the city total available funds of $258,237 during December.

Have $67,883 Balance
Total disbursements of $190,353 left the city with a cash balance of $67,883 as of Jan. 1.

The expenditures included tax distributions to the Library Fund in the amount of $17,501; Police Pension fund, $28,201; Working Cash fund, $9,858 and the Illinois Municipal Retirement fund, $12,185. The city also paid $1709 into its 2% Fire Insurance fund.

Venice Fire Loss Down 30% In '68; Calls on Increase

Fire loss in the city of Venice during 1968 dropped 30% below total losses during 1967, resulting in a 27% reduction in the city's per capita fire loss. The Venice Volunteer fire department shows in an annual report to city officials.

The report, submitted by Thomas McCoskey, secretary of the fire department, listed a total of 288 fire alarm calls during the past year, up 45 over the 163 calls during 1967, but showed an overall fire loss on all calls of $12,975. Total fire loss in 1967 was $19,561.

The small fire loss was accomplished even though the value of real property and of contents involved in all fire calls was greater during 1968 than in 1967.

The value of all property involved in 1968 fires, other than railroad and industrial, was $29,520, the report said. This is $147,064, or more than double, the total value of $12,456 involved in all 1967 fires. Fire losses to property was $10,305 for 1968, compared to $12,125 in 1967.

Content Value Down
The value of contents involved in 1968 fires amounted to $69,540, down slightly from the $68,540 value of contents involved in 1967 fires. Loss to contents, the report showed, was $2570, compared to a loss to contents of $6346 in 1967.

The report said these figures result in a per capita fire loss of $2.52 for the 1968 year, compared to a $3.45 per capita loss in the preceding year. An average of 10.7 men responded to each fire call, the report added.

Greatest increase in fire calls during 1968 was to grass and rubbish fires and auto and truck fires. A total of 87 grass and rubbish fire alarms was answered last year, compared to 50 in 1967. The department had 27 auto and truck fire calls in 1968, compared to two in 1967.

The department responded to only ten out of town calls during 1968, down eight from the 18 alarms received the previous year. The number of false alarms fell off sharply from 19 to seven, but the number of rescue calls increased to nine from only three in 1967.

Other fires included six shed and garage fires compared to eight in 1967 and 14 calls to commercial firms, up from 10 in 1967. The number of calls to residence totaled 33, unchanged from 1967. The department also answered 11 calls on railroad property and four on McKinley bridge last year.

State License Plate Deadline is Nearing

The deadline of midnight Saturday, Feb. 15, for displaying 1969 motor vehicle license plates on the vehicles continues to get closer, Secretary of State Paul Powell warned today.

Less than four weeks now remain before the deadline, he said, emphasizing that the deadline is for having the plates mounted on the vehicles, not merely applied for or being carried in the car.

Plates may be purchased locally at the First Granite City National Bank and Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

Sunday Services

A lesson-sermon entitled "Truth" will be read in all Christian Science Churches this Sunday. Services will begin at 10:45 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2500 Delmar avenue.

Shift Change Planned at Treatment Plant

Elimination of the midnight shift at the fully-automatic city sewage treatment plant was recommended during Monday night's Granite City council session, but action was deferred as it came up five minutes before the 11 p.m. adjournment and at least five aldermen already had departed for work.

The recommendation was presented by a special committee following a conference with Robert Jackson, treatment plant superintendent. Jackson is recommending the night men be transferred to the day shift and be assigned as a swing man for vacation periods.

Operating Engineers Local 530 officers who represent the treatment plant workers, had requested the city hire another man for the midnight shift for safety reasons. Alderman Dawes, a member of the council's special committee, said most municipal treatment plants in the area with night shift workers have them for security reasons. The Granite City plant is located in the Army Depot. Deferment of action on the committee recommendation was requested by Farney, supported by Fry, because of the number of aldermen absent.

Engineering for a pedestrian crosswalk light on Johnson road at Wabash avenue for youngsters attending Frohard grade school was authorized. The city was advised by the state highway district engineer that the amounts of pedestrian and vehicular traffic warranted the installation with motor fuel tax funds.

In miscellaneous business, the council has under study bids for four new police cars, with proposals based on trade-in of four 1968 patrol cars and separate bids on trade-in of two 1968 cars and two 1962 models.

The bids were Mathews Chevrolet, $8835 and $10,635; B. E. Hohl, $8913 and $10,763; and Brewer Motors, $10,080 and $11,330.

Authorization was given for Probationary Patrolman Bill Curtis to attend a basic police training school at Western Illinois University Feb. 2-28 with an allowance of $431—half to be reimbursed by the state.

Clean Air Network

The Air Pollution Control Board was authorized to hire a firm to install a network monitoring system and is to stay within the $2700 budget.

Council members approved bills totaling $16,940 and adopted two fund transfer resolutions—$20,000 from sales tax with $15,000 to go to the general government fund and $7000 to the crossing guard fund, and a department transfer of $1500 from bituminous materials to truck repairs.

A bid of $500 from Cable Center, Inc., St. Louis, for the city's old bucket-type sewer cleaning machine was accepted, and a call for bids is to be made to sell an unused portable traffic signal light to a Michigan mining firm for a private street. Mayor Partney said the company has submitted a $400 offer. Alderman Robertson recommended a bill call.

Referred to the Special Sewer Committee was a letter from the state highway department requesting city payment of added costs on the Namooki road improvement job, caused by the storm water drainage system. The committee also is to study a proposal for audit of federal funds received for the project, submitted by Jack Huggins.

An ordinance was adopted granting St. Elizabeth Hospital permission to install utility lines under Iowa street in the 2100 block.

Robertson called for further action for repair to railroad crossings. He asked for an opinion on legality of the city filing suit against the railroads.

In making request for city lights in easements of residential areas without alleys, Robertson was advised by Alderman Basarich that the power company refuses to take its equipment into such easements.

Permission was given Granite City Trust & Savings Bank to place a 3x15-foot canvas banner across the 1900 block of Edison avenue from Friday through Feb. 17 to advertise the sale of state auto license plates.

The state highway department has been requested to eliminate mud in the 3000 and 3100 blocks of West 20th streets.
